

Unique Heads Up Seminar for Advanced Players

Meet Daniel „jungleman12“ Cates and Johannes Strassmann
from 1 – 3 April 2012

Since we have already done a very well received and liked Seminar around three months ago in Vienna, we have decided to do yet an even better one. The top professional poker players Johannes Straßmann (J.Strassmann) and Daniel Cates (jungleman12) will hold a seminar in the King's Casino on April 1st – 3rd. It starts right after EPT Campione and right before WPT Vienna. So it's a great timing if you are interesting in playing those soft tourneys.

This seminar is ideal for you if you are an aspiring NL Hold'em Player and you want to crush any cash game, especially heads-up, and increase your profits tremendously. We will coach you for three intensive days if you are interested in moving your poker game to a much higher level. This is a unique opportunity for you to get in contact with other advanced players and to learn from the player who is considered by many as the best online player of the world, Daniel Cates a.k.a. Jungleman12 .

In the seminar we will impart concepts and thoughts to you, which have lead us to great results as NLHE players and share our knowledge about the game of poker. The seminar will also be a great opportunity for all of us to get to know each other, and stay in contact in the future. After the seminar we will start a private skype-channel to which, as a former participant of the seminar, you will be granted access, so that you can further exchange information and knowledge with us and other advanced players.

Daniel would usually charge around up to 2000$ an hour. You will receive coaching well worth over US$20k, probably valuable in equity way beyond this number. With the crucial concepts presented in the seminar you will be able to develop your game and become one of the best.
